PASTORS PONDERINGS

Dear Parishioners,

We find ourselves in Ordinary Time again and returning to ordinary concerns.

This Sunday though, even if the earth doesn't necessarily shake, nevertheless we celebrate a milestone in Fr David's life and in the life of the Parish. After nearly 20 years of service here at St. Philip Benizi first as Pastor and then as increasingly retired Parochial Vicar, he is going to officially retire as Parochial Vicar at the end of the month.

What does this mean? Above all it will mean that Fr David at 85 years of age will be able to even more than before call his own shots. He will continue to be able to say Mass, hear Confessions, even take an occasional Appointment. No one here will take away his office. However, he will also be able to say no, be able guilt free to go off to his family in Belen, NM, to visit other relatives, to spend however much time he wants on gardening, to do whatever he wants.

No true Priest ever really retires, but at some age, one really has the right to say, "I've been in this Order for this many years, and I just want to do (or not do) _____," and the rest of us will have to adapt.

So do not be afraid, we'll still see plenty of Fr. David. But sometimes he'll say no, and we'll all have to respect it.

God bless you Fr. David!

-- Fr. Dennis

PENSAMIENTOS DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Estimados feligreses,

Nos encontramos de nuevo en el Tiempo Ordinario y volvemos a las preocupaciones ordinarias.

Este domingo, sin embargo, aunque la tierra no tiemble necesariamente, celebramos un hito en la vida del P. David y en la vida de la Parroquia. Después de casi 20 años de servicio aquí en San Felipe Benizi primero como Párroco y luego como Vicario Parroquial cada vez más retirado, se va a jubilar oficialmente como Vicario Parroquial a finales de mes.

¿Qué significa esto? Significa sobre todo que el P. David, a sus 85 años, podrá tomar sus propias decisiones. Seguirá celebrando la misa, confesando y, de vez en cuando, aceptando alguna cita. Nadie le quitará su oficio, sin embargo, también podrá decir que no. Será libre de ir a ver a su familia en Belén, Nuevo México, visitar a otros parientes, dedicar todo el tiempo que quiera a la jardinería, hacer lo que quiera.

Ningún verdadero sacerdote se jubila realmente, pero a cierta edad, uno tiene realmente derecho a decir: "Llevo tantos años en esta Orden, y sólo quiero hacer (o no hacer) _____", y los demás tendremos que adaptarnos.

Así que no teman, seguiremos viendo mucho al P. David. Pero a veces dirá que no, y todos tendremos que respetarlo.

Que Dios le bendiga, P. David.

-- Padre Dennis
