PASTORS PONDERINGS

Dear Parishioners,

The Readings this Sunday seek to assure us once more of God's presence to us in our times of need. We are reminded that God actually doesn't ask all that much from us, just that we trust through him all will ultimately turn out well.

This Promise in itself is often hard to accept or believe. There are so many things wrong in this world, big and small, how can everything turn out well? Yet worry certainly doesn't help, striving for importance, except perhaps in the service of a greater good, doesn't help much either.

And yet, God assures us that all will turn out well anyway.

The first reading assures us that the Lord will come riding into town not on a big white horse, but rather on the foal of donkey. But he will get there – to us – anyway.

So ... in this time of summer, when we do have more of an opportunity to relax, let us seek to take the time to do so. Yes, there is much to worry about, if we'd want to do so. But it's also lovely outside. The kids are on vacation, and we have an opportunity, most of us to see, one way or another our loved ones – either we go to them, or they come to us.

Let us enjoy these days, and understand honestly "when two or three are gathered in Jesus' name ... Jesus is present."

So let us remember in the hugs that we give and receive during these times of gatherings of friends and family can indeed become hugs from God... not from above on a high horse, but from a smiling rosary carrying aunt or grandma.

Happy 14th Sunday of Ordinary Time!

-- Fr. Dennis

PENSAMIENTOS DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Estimados feligreses,

Las lecturas de este domingo pretenden asegurarnos una vez más la presencia de Dios en nuestros momentos de necesidad. Nos recuerdan que, en realidad, Dios no nos pide mucho, sólo que confiemos en que, a través de Él, todo acabará saliendo bien.

Esta Promesa en sí misma es a menudo difícil de aceptar o creer. Hay tantas cosas malas en este mundo, grandes y pequeñas, ¿cómo puede salir todo bien? La preocupación ciertamente no ayuda, esforzarse por ser importante, excepto quizás al servicio de un bien superior, tampoco ayuda mucho.

Y, sin embargo, Dios nos asegura que, de todos modos, todo saldrá bien.

La primera lectura nos asegura que el Señor llegará a la ciudad cabalgando no sobre un gran caballo blanco, sino más bien sobre un burrito. Pero llegará -a nosotros- de todos modos.

Así que... en este tiempo de verano, cuando tenemos más oportunidad de relajarnos, tratemos de tomarnos el tiempo para hacerlo. Sí, hay mucho de qué preocuparse, si quisiéramos hacerlo. Pero también se está muy bien fuera. Los niños están de vacaciones, y tenemos la oportunidad, la mayoría de nosotros de ver, de una manera u otra a nuestros seres queridos - o vamos a ellos, o ellos vienen a nosotros.

Disfrutemos de estos días, y entendamos honestamente que "cuando dos o tres están reunidos en el nombre de Jesús... Jesús está presente".

Así que recordemos en los abrazos que damos y recibimos durante estos tiempos de reuniones de amigos y familiares pueden convertirse de hecho en abrazos de Dios... no desde arriba en un caballo alto, sino de una sonriente tía o abuela portadora de un rosario.

¡Feliz 14^o Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario!
