PASTORS PONDERINGS

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday's Gospel Reading both continues the theme of challenge to the nominally religiously practicing community of Jesus' time and yet changes the imagery – to the activities around a wedding feast – which softens the blow.

Yet while there are all kinds of things that one could say at this point, there are things happening both in our neighborhood and in the larger world that are of concern that could affect our own wellbeing.

First, all of us have noticed over the past months there has been an uptick in the number of people coming to our doors who are homeless. Be assured that we are all very much aware of this, and with regards to the most problematic of our brothers and sisters who have come our way, we have had them arrested. I am actively pursuing in the case of the most problematic of all of them, applying the recently passed CARE law that would declare someone unable to take care of themselves and then the person would be put under custodianship of the state or otherwise someone else. Presently, there seems to be some confusion among the authorities about how this law could be applied in this case. But rest assured that to the questions "well it's hard, it's confusing, we don't know..." in as much as there is an answer, I will find it.

There is, however, a second problem that you should be aware of – all the local shelters, including the one that we worked to build, are now full. This is largely because while publicly Judge Carter was asking that the County and its Cities provide enough shelter beds for 60% of their homeless populations, in the years before we got the Fullerton Navigation Center built, he cut a deal with Northern Orange county so that they would only have to provide shelter beds for less than 30% of our homeless population. He thought this was the best deal he could make at the time.... However, the result is that 70% of our homeless population is out on the streets, and some of them are starting to come here again. Please start calling the city again to ask them to build the necessary beds so that we have some place(s) to send them.

The other problem I see is the now series of wars occurring in the world today. The stories and imagery from these wars can be very disturbing. As I told my 91-year-old dad this week, if you find that this imagery is increasingly bothering you, please turn off the tv set, and just start praying. It is the month of the Rosary, a truly fortunate month to keep this in mind.

Our Lady, Queen of Peace, ... pray for us.

-- Fr. Dennis

PENSAMIENTOS DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Queridos feligreses,

La lectura del Evangelio de este domingo continúa con el tema del desafío a la comunidad de la época de Jesús, nominalmente practicante de la religión, pero cambia las imágenes -las actividades en torno a un banquete de bodas -, lo que suaviza el golpe.

Sin embargo, aunque se podría decir de todo en este momento, hay cosas que ocurren tanto en nuestro vecindario como en el resto del mundo que son preocupantes y que podrían afectar a nuestro propio bienestar.

En primer lugar, todos nos hemos dado cuenta de que en los últimos meses ha aumentado el número de personas sin hogar que llegan a nuestras puertas. Tengan la seguridad de que todos somos muy conscientes de ello, y en lo que respecta a los más problemáticos de nuestros hermanos y hermanas que se han cruzado en nuestro camino, los hemos hecho detener. Estoy persiguiendo activamente en el caso de los más problemáticos de todos ellos, la aplicación de la recientemente aprobada ley CARE que declararía a alguien incapaz de cuidar de sí mismo y entonces la persona sería puesta bajo la custodia del estado o de otra persona. Actualmente, parece haber cierta confusión entre las autoridades sobre cómo podría aplicarse esta ley en este caso. Pero tenga la seguridad de que a las preguntas "bueno, es difícil, es confuso, no sabemos...", en la medida en que haya una respuesta, la encontraré.

Hay, sin embargo, un segundo problema que deberíais conocer: todos los refugios locales, incluido el que trabajamos para construir, están ahora llenos. Esto se debe en gran parte a que mientras públicamente el Juez Carter pedía que el Condado y sus Ciudades proporcionaran suficientes camas de refugio para el 60% de sus poblaciones sin hogar, en los años antes de que consiguiéramos que se construyera el Centro de Navegación de Fullerton, hizo un trato con el Condado del Norte de Orange para que sólo tuvieran que proporcionar camas de refugio para menos del 30% de nuestra población sin hogar. Pensó que era el mejor acuerdo que podía hacer en ese momento Sin embargo, el resultado es que el 70% de nuestra población sin hogar está en la calle, y algunos de ellos están empezando a venir aquí de nuevo. Por favor, empiecen a llamar a la ciudad de nuevo para pedirles que construyan las camas necesarias para que tengamos algún lugar(es) donde enviarlos.

El otro problema que veo es la serie de guerras que están ocurriendo en el mundo hoy en día. Las historias y las imágenes de estas guerras pueden ser muy perturbadoras. Como le dije a mi padre de 91 años esta semana, si ves que estas imágenes te molestan cada vez más, apaga la televisión y ponte a rezar. Es el mes del Rosario, un mes verdaderamente afortunado para tener esto presente.

Nuestra Señora, Reina de la Paz, ... ruega por nosotros.
