PASTORS PONDERINGS

Dear Parishioners,

If each year the Liturgy sends us out into the Desert on the First Sunday of Lent, it always takes us up to the Mountain Top on the Second Sunday of Lent.

Over the years, I've come to believe that the reason why the Liturgy does this, is to remind us that our sacrifices for the faith are worth it.

Jesus too wanted to show his disciples at least a glimpse of the glory to come to give them encouragement to move forward.

If we stayed simply in a state of deprivation without a sense that our sacrifices were worth it, we would probably give-up at some point. Instead we are shown that our sacrifices will be worth it in the end.

Indeed, in the First Reading this Sunday we are reminded that though God tested Abraham, he both relented and renewed his promise that his descendants will number the stars of the heavens or grains of sand on a beach by the sea.

We ourselves are assured by Jesus that every good act that we perform will produce its reward and Moses assured the people as they approached the Promised Land that though our sins will have consequences up to four generations that the good things we do will be blessings that extend to 100 generations.

In other words, we have a God who loves us, who does take note of the good things that we do, and truly is on our side.

So as we march on during this time of Reflection during Lent, let us never become discouraged. Through God who cares, all will turn out well.

-- Fr. Dennis

PENSAMIENTOS DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Queridos feligreses,

Si cada año la Liturgia nos envía al desierto el primer domingo de Cuaresma, siempre nos lleva a la cima de la montaña el segundo domingo de Cuaresma.

A lo largo de los años, he llegado a creer que la razón por la que la Liturgia hace esto es para recordarnos que nuestros sacrificios por la fe valen la pena.

Jesús también quería mostrar a sus discípulos al menos un atisbo de la gloria venidera para animarlos a seguir adelante.

Si simplemente nos quedáramos en un estado de privación sin sentir que nuestros sacrificios valieran la pena, probablemente nos rendiríamos en algún momento. En cambio, se nos muestra que nuestros sacrificios al final valdrán la pena.

De hecho, en la Primera Lectura de este domingo se nos recuerda que, aunque Dios probó a Abraham, él cedió y renovó su promesa de que sus descendientes contarían las estrellas del cielo o los granos de arena en una playa junto al mar.

Jesús nos asegura a nosotros mismos que cada buena acción que realicemos producirá su recompensa y Moisés aseguró al pueblo mientras se acercaban a la Tierra Prometida que aunque nuestros pecados tendrán consecuencias hasta por cuatro generaciones, las cosas buenas que hagamos serán bendiciones que se extenderán a 100 generaciones.

En otras palabras, tenemos un Dios que nos ama, que toma nota de las cosas buenas que hacemos y que verdaderamente está de nuestro lado.

Así que mientras avanzamos durante este tiempo de reflexión durante la Cuaresma, nunca nos desanimemos. Por nuestro Dios a quien le importamos, todo saldrá bien.

-- P. Dennis
