THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." - Mt 28:18-19

Entonces Jesús se acercó a ellos y les dijo: "Me ha sido dado todo poder en el cielo y en la tierra. Vayan, pues, y enseñen a todas las naciones, bautizándolas en el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo". - Mt 28, 18-19

PASTORS PONDERINGS

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate Trinity Sunday. It always follows Pentecost Sunday in which we recalled the arrival and hence revelation of the Holy Spirit as the third Person of the Most Holy Trinity.

With the possible exception of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, this is almost certainly the most theological of the Feasts that we celebrate in our Liturgical Year, and from the beginning it has challenged our Church's greatest thinkers.

St. Augustine compared the size of the Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity to an ocean while we ourselves are but able to grasp but a bucket or even just a handful of water at a time. It really is too big for us.

Such then is expressed both the Greatness of God and our obvious smallness in comparison.

Yes, this is humbling, and yet we are assured that this is okay. We don't have to solve every problem, we just above all are asked to be kind.

Yet we are assured that this immense God who created the enormous universe in which we live, has time to love us, that he accompanies us and gives us the tools to overcome any problem or obstacle that we face before us.

The Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity baffles all of us. But the love we experience through it, remains something that lifts us up.

We are told by our faith that all of us were created by the Father out of Love. We are told that the Son loved us so much that he died an ignominious death for us. And we are told that the Holy Spirit present among us gives us the capacity to overcome any difficulties that come in our way.

Finally, we are told that our destiny isn't here, but in Eternity with this God so great and so beautiful that God exists beyond our imagination.

Today is a hard feast to understand, but is a beautiful one to simply bask in.

God is Great but also God is Good, and God loves us all. Happy Feast of the Most Holy Trinity!

-- Fr Dennis

PENSAMIENTOS DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Queridos feligreses,

Este fin de semana celebramos el Domingo de la Trinidad. Siempre sigue al Domingo de Pentecostés, en el que recordamos la llegada y, por tanto, la revelación del Espíritu Santo como la tercera Persona de la Santísima Trinidad.

Con la posible excepción de la Fiesta de la Inmaculada Concepción, esta ciertamente es la más teológica de las Fiestas que celebramos en nuestro Año Litúrgico, y desde el principio ha desafiado a los más grandes teólogos de nuestra Iglesia.

San Agustín comparó el tamaño del Misterio de la Santísima Trinidad con un océano, mientras que nosotros mismos sólo somos capaces de agarrar un balde o solo un puñado de agua a la vez. Este Misterio es realmente demasiado grande para nosotros.

Así se expresa entonces tanto la grandeza de Dios como nuestra evidente pequeñez en comparación.

Sí, esto es una lección de humildad y, sin embargo, estamos seguros de que está bien. No tenemos que resolver todos los problemas, pero sobre todo se nos pide que seamos amables.

Sin embargo, tenemos la seguridad de que este Dios inmenso que creó el enorme universo en el que vivimos, tiene tiempo para amarnos, que nos acompaña y nos da las herramientas para superar cualquier problema u obstáculo que se nos presente.

El Misterio de la Santísima Trinidad nos desconcierta a todos. Pero el amor que experimentamos a través de él sigue siendo algo que nos eleva.

Nuestra fe nos dice que todos fuimos creados por el Padre por Amor. Se nos dice que el Hijo nos amó tanto que murió una muerte ignominiosa por nosotros. Y se nos dice que el Espíritu Santo presente entre nosotros nos da la capacidad de superar cualquier dificultad que se presente en nuestro camino.

Finalmente, se nos dice que nuestro destino no está aquí, sino en la Eternidad con este Dios tan grande y tan hermoso que existe más allá de nuestra imaginación.

Hoy es una fiesta difícil de entender, pero es hermosa para simplemente gloriarse en ella.

Dios es Grande pero también Bueno, y nos ama a todos. ¡Feliz Fiesta de la Santísima Trinidad!

-- p. Dennis
