10TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to them in reply, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking around at those seated in the circle he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." - Mk 3:33-35

El les respondió: "¿Quién es mi madre y quiénes son mis hermanos?" Luego, mirando a los que estaban sentados a su alrededor, dijo: "Estos son mi madre y mis hermanos. Porque el que cumple la voluntad de Dios, ése es mi hermano, mi hermana y mi madre". - Mc 3, 33-35

PASTORS PONDERINGS

Dear Parishioners,

We find ourselves now in the beginning of our long stretch of Ordinary Time, which is both a time of greater relaxation in our practice of the faith as well as focusing on both the big questions of our lives as well as the day to day.

The Readings for this Sunday, which focus on a common temptation that we all can face – assigning blame for “problems” – fit then the spirit of this time of year perfectly.

Yes, when in doubt, we’re often tempted to find someone to blame for our difficulties.

We hear this in the very first chapters of Genesis: After transgressing against God’s expressed if all considered still relatively small commandment – don’t eat from the fruit of the tree of knowledge – when caught, both Adam and then Eve, seek to shift blame away from them: Adam blames “the woman” (Eve), Eve blames “the snake.”

Similarly, a commission of scribes and priests comes out “to investigate” this new preacher named Jesus who’s been starting to get a name for himself across the Galilean hinterlands and ... they blame the devil for his apparent success in healing people and so forth.

Again, it’s a common temptation to find fault and assign blame when something or someone unexpected comes around.

Yet, as Jesus notes, healing comes from the Holy Spirit. To find fault in good works, good outcomes, is to find fault in the Holy Spirit itself. And that should be a problem.

Finally, even in that Original Sin of which the first chapters of Genesis talks. I’ve long come to the conclusion that the Original Sin wasn’t that the two ate from the tree that God had nominally told them not to. But that they chose to try to hide it when they did.

God place the tree in the middle of the garden, God made the fruit enticing. If it was truly dangerous, he would have put it at the edge of the garden with a big fence and warning signs all around it. So the test wasn’t so much the eating of the fruit but rather the reaction afterwards.

Let us trust God that God would understand or could be made to understand if we did something that nominally went against what we thought he wanted us to do.

-- Fr. Dennis

PENSAMIENTOS DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Queridos feligreses,

Nos encontramos ahora en el comienzo en el largo tramo del Tiempo Ordinario, que es a la vez un tiempo de mayor relajación en nuestra práctica de la fe y de concentración tanto en las grandes cuestiones de nuestra vida como en el día a día.

Las Lecturas de este Domingo, que se centran en una tentación común que todos podemos enfrentar –asignar culpas por los “problemas”– encajan perfectamente con el espíritu de esta época del año.

Sí, en caso de duda, a menudo nos sentimos tentados a buscar a alguien a quien culpar de nuestras dificultades.

Escuchamos esto en los primeros capítulos del Génesis: Después de transgredir el mandamiento de Dios expresado por todos, todavía relativamente pequeño (no comer del fruto del árbol del sabiduría), cuando son sorprendidos, tanto Adán como Eva, buscan poner la culpa a otros: Adán culpa a “la mujer” (Eva), Eva culpa a “la serpiente”.

De manera similar, una comisión de escribas y sacerdotes sale “a investigar” a este nuevo predicador llamado Jesús que ha estado comenzando a hacerse un nombre en Galilea y... culpan al diablo por su aparente éxito en curar a la gente, etc.

De nuevo, es una gran tentación buscar fallas y culpar a alguien cuando surge algo o alguien inesperado.

Pero como señala Jesús, la sanación proviene del Espíritu Santo. Encontrar fallas en las buenas obras, en los buenos resultados, es encontrar fallas en el Espíritu Santo mismo. Y eso debería ser un problema.

Finalmente, incluso en ese Pecado Original del que hablan los primeros capítulos del Génesis. Hace tiempo que llegué a la conclusión de que el pecado original no fue que los dos comieran del árbol que Dios nominalmente les había dicho que no comieran, sino que optaron por intentar ocultarlo cuando lo hicieron.

Dios puso el árbol en medio del jardín, Dios hizo que el fruto fuera atractivo. Si fuera realmente peligroso, lo habría puesto al borde del jardín con una gran valla y señales de advertencia a su alrededor. Entonces la prueba no fue tanto comer la fruta sino más bien la reacción posterior.

Confiemos en Dios en que Dios entendería o podría hacerse entender si hiciéramos algo que nominalmente iba en contra de lo que pensábamos que él quería que hiciéramos.

-- P. Dennis

End-of-the-Year Thank-You PrayerReading and Reflection: Matthew 25:23

His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.'

El patrón le dijo: 'Muy bien, servidor bueno y honrado; ya que has sido fiel en lo poco, yo te confiaré mucho más. Ven a compartir la alegría de tu patrón'.

Reflection - Reflexión

Lord, thank you for these men and women who have worked with love and patience in our catechetical program this year. Thank you for the gifts they have shared in service to our St Philip Benizi parish.

Lord, thank you for Jovita Langlet, Sonia Rojas, Rene Langlet, Marisela Casares, June McIntire, Pat Oishi, Katheleen Oishi, Diana Camargo, Amy Gonzalez, Renata Serna, Michelle Flores, Araceli Gonzalez, Maria and Daisy Garcia for the tender love they share with younger students and their wonderfully creative ideas for interactive learning activities.

Lord, thank you for Chuck St Duran, for the testimony he shares in teaching the confirmation teens and unbaptized children. His stories help students better understand how relevant their Catholic faith is in the world today.

Lord, thank you for Andrea Sacayan, for her sparkling sense of humor that brings light-hearted moments to all of us and for her committed love to welcome those seeking to get to know you and follow you. Andrea has supported our Family catechesis, during the reconciliation and first communion retreats, Christmas celebrations and substituting when needed.

Lord, thank you for Tricia Smith, Silvia Garcia and Patty Segura, for the insights and wisdom they share with the people in our adult faith formation.

Lord, thank you for Dalia Zakhary, Dalia has passionately embraced the family catechesis and share the love and teachings of Jesus to the families of St Philip Benizi. Dalia will be the first woman to be consecrated in the Dioceses of Orange as a consecrated virgin living in the world.

Lord, thank you for Emilio Cardona, Amalia Barragan, Lourdes Palafox, Dora Romo, Martha Lemus, Anna Hernandez, Camila and Joe Rubio, for their tremendous support to the program, their work behind the scene makes our program possible.

Lord, thank you for our pastor, Fr Dennis Kriz, despite his many responsibilities, his shepherd's love has supported our catechetical program and made it a priory in every way.

Lord, thank you for Imelda Pribe and Fr Sebastian Mulu, Armando Lomeli, Leticia Rodriguez, for supporting the teen confirmation program.

As you can see, it takes a community to share the Good News and love of Christ to others.

Lord, thank you for the abundant blessings in our parish. You have given us more than we ever dreamed possible and we are so grateful. You've placed caring people around us who consistently support and watch over our children, teens and adults. Thank you for all these gifts.

Como Podemos ver, se necesita una comunidad para compartir la Buena Nueva y el amor de Cristo a los demás. Señor, Gracias por las abundantes bendiciones en nuestra parroquia, nos has dado más de lo pudiéramos soñar, por lo que te agradecemos. Has puesto a nuestro alrededor personas amorosas y que constantemente apoyan y velan por nuestros niños, adolescentes y adultos. Gracias por todos estos regalos.

Thank you, Lord, for all these precious gifts. We ask you to bless each of us. Please keep us healthy, happy, and close to you. Give us an enjoyable summertime!

Gracias Señor, por estos preciosos regalos, te pedimos que nos bendigas a cada uno de nosotros, por favor mantennos saludables, felices and unidos a ti. ¡Permítenos para un verano memorable!

JESUS NAZARENO

The Filipino Ministry of St. Philip Benizi is excited to bring to you the Black Nazarene or Poon Jesus Nazareno. This life-sized replica from the Philippines will be visiting St. Philip Benizi from June 15-29, 2024. We're looking for volunteers to hold a vigil during veneration hours. There will be a sign up sheet at the church entrance.

The Black Nazarene is a life-sized dark statue of Jesus Christ carrying the True Cross. The original image is enshrined in the Minor Basilica and National Shrine of the Black Nazarene in Quiapo, Manila, Philippines. The image was reputedly carved by an unknown Mexican artist in the 16th century and then brought to the Philippines via galleon from Acapulco on May 31, 1606. It depicts Jesus en route to His crucifixion and pious believers claim that physically touching the image can bring miracles and cure diseases. There are many legends on how the image came to have a black face, but researcher of Catholic theology Monsignor Sabino Vengco, claims that the image is not charred, but is in fact dark through to its core, being carved from mesquite wood. Vengco claims that mesquite wood was a popular medium in Mexico during the period the image was carved.

January 9 is the feast day of the Black Nazarene. It was that day in 1787 when the image was first moved ("Traslacion") to its current location at the Minor Basilica and National Shrine of the Black Nazarene in Quiapo. On January 9th of each year, the image is processed throughout the streets of Quiapo and at one point, devotees numbering 6.5 million followed the image. The proper liturgical commemoration of the Black Nazarene is on Good Friday. But January 9 is the date most associated with the Black Nazarene.

Please join us in venerating the Black Nazarene or Poon Jesus Nazareno. ¡VIVA JESUS NAZARENO!

El Ministerio Filipino de San Felipe Benizi, se complace en presentarle al Nazareno Negro o Poon Jesús Nazareno. Esta réplica de tamaño natural de Filipinas visitará San Felipe Benizi del 15 al 29 de Junio de 2024. Estamos buscando voluntarios para realizar una vigilia durante las horas de veneración. Habrà una hoja de inscripción en la entrada de la iglesia.

El Nazareno Negro es una estatua oscura de tamaño natural de Jesucristo cargando la Verdadera Cruz. La imagen original está consagrada en la Basílica Menor y Santuario Nacional del Nazareno Negro en Quiapo, Manila, Filipinas. Se dice que la imagen fue tallada por un artista mexicano desconocido en el siglo XVI y luego traída a Filipinas en un galeón desde Acapulco el 31 de mayo de 1606. Representa a Jesús en camino a su crucifixión y los creyentes piadosos afirman que tocar físicamente la imagen puede traer milagros y curar enfermedades. Hay muchas leyendas sobre cómo la imagen llegó a tener una cara negra, pero el investigador de Teología Católica, Monseñor Sabino Vengco, afirma que la imagen no está carbonizada, sino que, de hecho, es oscura hasta el centro, ya que está tallada en madera de mezquite. Vengco afirma que la madera de mezquite era un medio popular en México durante el período en que se talló la imagen.

El 9 de Enero es la fiesta del Nazareno Negro. Fue ese día de 1787 cuando la imagen fue trasladada por primera vez a su ubicación actual en la Basílica Menor y Santuario Nacional del Nazareno Negro en Quiapo. El 9 de Enero de cada año, la imagen se procesa por las calles de Quiapo y en un momento, 6.5 millones de devotos siguieron la imagen. La conmemoración litúrgica propia del Nazareno Negro es el Viernes Santo. Pero el 9 de enero es la fecha más asociada con el Nazareno Negro.

Únase a nosotros para venerar al Nazareno Negro o Poon Jesús Nazareno. ¡VIVA JESÚS NAZARENO!
