27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female." - Mk 10:3-6

El les respondió: "¿Qué les prescribió Moisés?" Ellos contestaron: "Moisés nos permitió el divorcio mediante la entrega de un acta de divorcio a la esposa". Jesús les dijo: "Moisés prescribió esto, debido a la dureza del corazón de ustedes. Pero desde el principio, al crearlos, Dios los hizo hombre y mujer". - Mc 10, 3-6

PASTORS PONDERINGS

Dear Parishioners,

The Readings today continue with the theme of reminding us that Jesus came for everybody.

The Pharisees pose a serious question to Jesus about marriage, one which was as important at that time as it is today:

Is it okay to divorce?

Jesus responded in a frustrating manner. He first asks what the Law of Moses said, and the Pharisees responded that the Law of Moses permitted divorce. But Jesus continues saying, "Yes, but this was not the intent in the beginning ..."

Again, the question of divorce is something that comes down to our day.

The Catholic Church of course has been against divorce for centuries. Yet it too has sought to protect aggrieved spouses and children.

In previous centuries, the Church has accepted the need for the separation of spouses. In more recent times, the Church has allowed many troubled marriages to be annulled declaring, after an appropriate investigation, that there was a significant enough problem in the marriage from the very beginning to allow it to declare that the marriage never really took place.

Yet, even so, the collapse of a marriage is generally very hard and painful.

What Jesus does at the end of this episode is remind us that he really did come for everybody, and that both originally and ultimately God wanted / wants us to be happy.

After the dust settles after a failed marriage, or really any failed project, we always have the opportunity to get ourselves up again to walk anew. We of all faiths are one of Resurrection.

Yes, there's always a cost to sin, and to unfortunate decisions. But the final word is in God's love for us.

Jesus embraces the children at the end of the passage this Sunday. He offers his embrace to all of us as well.

-- Fr. Dennis

PENSAMIENTOS DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Queridos Feligreses,

Las lecturas de hoy continúan con el tema de recordarnos que Jesús vino para todos.

Los Fariseos le plantean a Jesús una pregunta seria sobre el matrimonio, una pregunta que era tan importante en ese momento como lo es hoy:

¿Está lícito divorciarse?

Jesús respondió de una manera frustrante. Primero pregunta qué decía la Ley de Moisés, y los Fariseos respondieron que la Ley de Moisés permitía el divorcio. Pero Jesús continúa diciendo: "Sí, pero esa no era la intención al principio..."

Una vez más, la cuestión del divorcio es algo que llega hasta nuestros días.

La Iglesia Católica, por supuesto, ha estado en contra del divorcio por siglos. Sin embargo, también ha buscado proteger a los cónyuges agraviados y a los hijos.

En siglos anteriores, la Iglesia ha aceptado la necesidad de la separación de los cónyuges. En tiempos más recientes, la Iglesia ha permitido que se anularan muchos matrimonios con problemas, declarando, después de una investigación apropiada, que había un u otro problema suficientemente grave en el matrimonio desde el principio como para permitirle declarar que este matrimonio nunca existió realmente.

Sin embargo, aun así, el fracaso de un matrimonio es generalmente muy duro y doloroso.

Lo que hace Jesús al final de este episodio es recordarnos que realmente vino por todos, y que tanto en el principio como en el final Dios quería/quiere que seamos felices.

Después de que el polvo se asiente después de un matrimonio fallido, o realmente cualquier proyecto fallido, siempre tenemos la oportunidad de levantarnos de nuevo para caminar de nuevo. Somos siempre una fe de Resurrección.

Cierto, siempre hay un costo por el pecado y por las desafortunadas decisiones. Pero la última palabra es del amor de Dios por nosotros.

Jesús abraza a los niños al final del pasaje de este Domingo. Nos ofrece su abrazo a todos nosotros también.

-- p. Dennis

Encounter Jesus at the Mass

Bishop Barron's new 6 Episode Video Series will take us on a journey through the Mass.

These are the titles:

- A Privileged Encounter
- Called out of the World
- God Speaks our Story
- Responding to God
- Preparing for Sacrifice
- The Real Presence Creates Communion

One of the most basic truths about the Mass is that it is an encounter with Jesus Christ. Christianity is not a philosophy or a set of ideas, but rather a relationship with the person of Christ. In the Mass, in a privileged way, we meet him, listen to him, respond to him, commune with him.
