PASTORS PONDERINGS

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday we begin a new liturgical year with the celebration of the First Sunday of Advent.

We light the first candle on our Advent Wreath and we recall just how long it was from the time of the Prophets beginning to talk of the coming of a messiah, an anointed one to set things right in the world.

That things were wrong with the world was clear to the Prophets. They had spent generations both pleading with and scolding their people to come back to the Lord and to restore relationships of justice between them. Then came several centuries of invasions and occupations by foreign peoples and the plea became broader. The Prophets came to understand that the whole world needed to be reset, restored, not just Israel.

The prophets pleaded to both the people and to God, and found that they had to wait... wait a long time ... for centuries.

Advent gives an annual opportunity to reflect on waiting.

As a race, we've generally not been good at it, perhaps even less so today.

We carry around smart phones in our pockets that are stronger than the most powerful super computers of a generation ago. These phones help us to predict the weather over our heads to within an hour of its happening. They allow us to navigate most efficiently the traffic before us. But we constantly find ourselves staring at a spinning wheel on our screen, forcing us to wait.

Our world is populated with eight billion people, each at least as smart and demanding as a smart phone. Even in Jesus' time, God had to be concerned about the needs and wishes of hundreds of millions of people. To make sure that all those needs are met and respected can not possibly be easy.

So we shouldn't be surprised that we wait before a giant and seemingly interminable spinning wheel of justice. And yet one day our problems, our world's problems will be solved.

In the meantime, we can take solace in what we saw of God's first customer service call, his sending of his son Jesus here 2000 years ago. It was clear that when he came, he came for everybody, not just the loudest complainers, or the most privileged users, but honestly for everyone.

Yes, it seems that we will have to wait for a long time for our world's problems to be finally solved, and like the generations before us, we will almost certainly not see its arrival.

But we still have carry the message of Jesus' first arrival: that God cares, that God cares for truly everyone and all will turn out well in the end. Happy Advent to all!

-- Fr. Dennis

PENSAMIENTOS DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Estimados Feligreses:

Este Domingo comenzamos un nuevo Año Litúrgico con la celebración del Primer Domingo de Adviento.

Encendemos la primera vela de nuestra Corona de Adviento y recordamos cuánto tiempo pasó desde que los profetas comenzaron a hablar de la llegada de un mesías, un ungido, para arreglar las cosas en el mundo.

Los profetas tenían claro que las cosas estaban mal en el mundo. Habían pasado generaciones suplicando y reprendiendo a su pueblo para que volviera al Señor y restaurara las relaciones de justicia entre ellos. Luego vinieron siglos de invasiones y ocupaciones por parte de pueblos extranjeros y la súplica se hizo más amplia. Los Profetas llegaron a comprender que era necesario restablecer, restaurar el mundo entero, no solo Israel.

Los profetas suplicaron tanto al pueblo como a Dios, y descubrieron que tenían que esperar... esperar mucho tiempo... esperar por siglos.

El Adviento nos da una oportunidad anual para reflexionar sobre la experiencia de esperar

Como raza, en general no somos buenos en esperar, talvez peor hoy.

Llevamos en el bolsillo teléfonos inteligentes que son más potentes que las supercomputadoras de la generación pasada. Estos teléfonos nos ayudan a predecir cuando tormentas pasarán sobre nuestras cabezas con una precisión de una hora. Nos permiten navegar de forma más eficiente en el tráfico que tenemos delante. Pero constantemente nos encontramos mirando una rueda que gira en nuestra pantalla, obligándonos a esperar.

Nuestro mundo está poblado por ocho billones de personas, cada una al menos tan inteligente y exigente como un teléfono inteligente. Incluso en la época de Jesús, Dios tenía que preocuparse por las necesidades y los deseos de cientos de millones de personas. Asegurar que todas esas necesidades se satisfagan y respeten no puede ser fácil.

Así que no debería sorprendernos que esperemos ante una gigantesca y aparentemente interminable rueda de justicia. Y, sin embargo, un día nuestros problemas, los problemas de nuestro mundo, se resolverán.

Mientras tanto, podemos consolarnos con lo que vimos de la llamada de servicio al cliente de Dios, su envío de su hijo Jesús aquí hace 2000 años. Estaba claro que cuando vino, vino para todos, no sólo para los que se quejan más fuerte, o los usuarios más privilegiados, sino honestamente para todos.

Sí, parece que tendremos que esperar mucho tiempo para que los problemas de nuestro mundo se resuelvan finalmente, y como las generaciones anteriores, casi con certeza no veremos su llegada.

Pero todavía tenemos que llevar el mensaje de la primera llegada de Jesús: que Dios nos ama, que Dios se preocupa verdaderamente por todos y que al fin todo saldrá bien ¡Feliz Adviento a todos!

ST VINCENT DE PAUL

Thank you to the St. Philip Benizi Parishioners for your generous donations of food and financial support for the Thanksgiving give-away. We expect to be able to help more than 325 struggling families for Thanksgiving.

Christmas season is right around the corner, and we are already gathering food and toys for those in need. Last year, we provided toys and gift cards for 418 children and teens. The Giving Tree will be up soon in the back of the church.

Please take a card and provide an unwrapped gift for someone in our community. The most popular gifts are toys, balls, friendship bracelet kits and Gift Cards. We will collect donations in the box located by the Christmas tree.

Thanks again for all you do to care for those in need in our local area. St. Philip's parishioners are truly a beautiful example of Christian love and generosity in our community

God Bless you all!

OC CATHOLIC

FAITH LEADERS AT ST. Philip Benizi Catholic Church in Fullerton who are tasked with preparing the church's teenagers for the Sacrament of Confirmation felt it would be more impactful for the youngsters to become their favorite saint, and not simply read about them in a book.

So as part of the teens' preparation, Marivel Alvarado, faith formation coordinator at St. Philip Benizi, and Imelda Pribe, the church's confirmation coordinator, organized the Festival of Saints. Held on Oct. 26 in conjunction with All Saints Day, the Festival of Saints gave students, many joined by their families, the opportunity to dress as their favorite saint and set up a display with items or activities associated with their chosen saint.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) characterizes saints as "persons in heaven (officially canonized or not), who lived heroically virtuous lives, offered their life for others, or were martyred for the faith and who are worthy of imitation."
