PASTORS PONDERINGS

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday, with the celebration of the Descent of the Holy Spirit, Pentecost, we conclude the Easter Season. There will be both feast days immediately following (Mary, Mother of the Church, celebrated on Monday, right after Pentecost) as well as others celebrated on the Sundays following (Trinity Sunday, celebrated next Sunday and Corpus Christi, celebrated the following Sunday). However, the Easter Season itself solemnly ends today.

There is so much rich imagery present in this feast. Perhaps the most important is that of the Church itself – as the Body of Christ, animated by the Holy Spirit – becoming the final manifestation of the Risen Jesus.

And when the Church came out of its “locked room,” its de facto tomb, into the world, it sought to preach the Gospel to the whole world.

We will be celebrating this in a particularly joyful way this year with our “mini fest” (Food Fair with various kinds of Entertainment and our grand Raffle).

Jesus really did come for us all, no matter what culture we may come from, no matter what hobbies or interests we may have.

I’ve long believed that the model for the Church, and indeed of a Good Parish is that of the “mustard seed” that “grows into a bush” large enough for “all the birds of the air to find a nest.”

We are a lovely and remarkably diverse parish, with people coming from such exotic places as a Ohio and Zacatecas, Nebraska and Manila, Islands of Flowers, Jakarta and Central Bohemia, from places already named Belen and places whose names almost all of us would have difficulty pronouncing and whose days of import are yet to come.

We have musicians and scouts, computer geeks and florists, hair stylists and engineers, Chivas fans and Dodgers fans, and a fair number of fishermen and war Veterans.

Today is our day, and God bless you all!

Happy Pentecost!

-- Fr Dennis

PENSAMIENTOS DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Estimados Feligreses:

Este Domingo, con la celebración de la Llegada del Espíritu Santo, Pentecostés, concluimos el Tiempo Pascual. Habrá festividades inmediatamente posteriores (María, Madre de la Iglesia, celebrada el Lunes, justo después de Pentecostés), así como otras que se celebrarán los Domingos posteriores (Domingo de la Santísima Trinidad, que se celebra el próximo Domingo, y Corpus Christi que se celebrará el Domingo siguiente). Sin embargo, el Tiempo Pascual en sí mismo termina solemnemente hoy.

Hay una rica imaginaria presente en esta festividad. Quizás la más importante sea la de la Iglesia misma, como Cuerpo de Cristo, animada por el Espíritu Santo, convirtiéndose en la manifestación final de Jesús Resucitado.

Y cuando la Iglesia salió de su "cuarto cerrado", su tumba metafórica, al mundo, ella buscó predicar el Evangelio a todo el mundo.

Este año celebraremos esto con alegría especial con nuestra "mini fiesta" (con una kermes internacional y diversos entretenimientos y nuestra rifa).

Jesús realmente vino por todos nosotros, sin importar nuestra cultura, nuestras aficiones o intereses.

Siempre he creído que el modelo de la Iglesia, y de hecho de una buena parroquia, es el del "grano de mostaza" que "crece hasta convertirse en un arbusto" lo suficientemente grande como para que "todas las aves del cielo encuentren un nido".

Somos una parroquia encantadora y diversa, con gente que viene de lugares tan exóticos como Ohio y Zacatecas, Nebraska y Manila, Islas de las Flores, Yakarta y Bohemia Central, de lugares que ya se llaman Belén y de lugares cuyos nombres casi todos tendríamos dificultad para pronunciar y cuyos días de importancia aún están por llegar.

Tenemos músicos y scouts, expertos en informática y floristas, estilistas e ingenieros, aficionados de las Chivas y de los Dodgers, y un buen número de pescadores y Veteranos de guerra.

¡Hoy es nuestro día y que Dios los bendiga a todos!

¡Feliz Pentecostés!

-- Padre Dennis
