PASTORS PONDERINGS

Dear Parishioners,

Having concluded the Easter Season last week with the Solemnity of the Descent of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost, we come to this Sunday's celebration of the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity.

In years past, I would dread this celebration because it is generally the hardest to preach on.

However, this year's reflections over the course of Lent and Easter somehow make it easier this time around:

If (1) God is not a task master – having created Adam and Eve at the beginning of our story to help with the completion of the creation of the world, he clearly wasn't in a rush, not worried about "performance reviews," just wanted to take a walk at the end of each day with the them, to "just talk" and perhaps delight in the sunset and all that was already accomplished – and (2) as an Eternal Being, God may have some difficulty with comprehending time (he never seems to be in a rush), then perhaps we really should take seriously the doctrine Divine Pleasure, that God, so completely happy and fulfilled, created us simply out of pure joy, to be happy as well.

Last week, I mentioned that St. Paul wrote that we should do nothing to "sadden the Holy Spirit" and this appeal on the part of St. Paul seems to feed into this insight, that God, as the three very happy members of the Most Holy Trinity, just wants us to be happy as well.

A surprisingly lovely recent expression of that happiness could have been our lovely post-Pentecost celebration – Food Fair. The three groups which provided the entertainment – and we hope to have the Irish Dancers over for St. Philips' Day – help to remind us of the joy and beauty that is possible when we just see everyone as our brothers and sisters.

There is much that could sadden us these days. Please if you feel sad during these days take out the Rosary and pray.

God bless you all and remember, GOD WANTS US ALL TO BE HAPPY! Happy Trinity Sunday!

-- Fr. Dennis

PENSAMIENTOS DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Estimados Feligreses:

Tras concluir el Tiempo Pascual la semana pasada con la Solemnidad de la Venida del Espíritu Santo en Pentecostés, este Domingo celebramos la Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad.

En años anteriores, esta celebración me daba pavor porque suele ser la más difícil de predicar.

Sin embargo, las reflexiones de este año a lo largo de la Cuaresma y la Pascua, de alguna manera, lo hacen más fácil en esta ocasión:

Si (1) Dios no es un capataz —hablando de Adán y Eva al principio de nuestra historia para ayudar a completar la creación del mundo, claramente no tenía prisa, no le preocupaban las "evaluaciones de desempeño"— solo quería dar un paseo al final de cada día con ellos, para "simplemente conversar" y quizás deleitarse con la puesta de sol y todo lo que ya se había logrado— y (2) como Ser Eterno, Dios puede tener alguna dificultad para comprender el tiempo (nunca parece tener prisa), entonces quizás deberíamos tomar en serio la doctrina del Placer Divino: que Dios, tan completamente feliz y pleno, nos creó simplemente por pura alegría, para que también seamos felices.

La semana pasada, mencioné que San Pablo escribió que no debemos hacer nada que "entristezca al Espíritu Santo", y esta exhortación de San Pablo parece alimentar esta idea de que Dios, como los tres miembros muy felices de la Santísima Trinidad, simplemente quiere que también seamos felices. Una expresión reciente, sorprendentemente hermosa, de esa felicidad podría haber sido nuestra encantadora celebración post Pentecostés: la Feria de Comida. Los tres grupos que amenizaron el evento —y esperamos contar con la presencia de los danzantes Irlandeses para el Día de San Felipe— nos ayudan a recordar la alegría y la belleza que se alcanzan cuando consideramos a todos como nuestros hermanos y hermanas.

Hay muchas cosas que podrían entristecernos en estos días. Por favor, si se sienten tristes en estos días, saquen el Rosario y recen.

¡Que Dios los bendiga a todos y recuerden: DIOS QUIERE QUE TODOS SEAMOS FELICES!
¡Feliz Domingo de la Santísima Trinidad!
