PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Good and gracious God, You call each person by name and invite them to follow you. On this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, may each person hear and respond to the call they have received. We pray for all discerning marriage, the chaste single life, consecrated life, or ordained ministries, that your Holy Spirit would guide, inspire, and strengthen them. May your Church and the world be enriched by the "yes" of your children. Amen.

ORACIÓN POR VOCACIONES

Dios bueno y misericordioso, Llamas a cada persona por su nombre y los invitas a que te sigan. En este Día Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones, que cada persona escuche y responda a la llamada que han recibido. Oramos por todos aquellos discerniendo el matrimonio, la vida casta y soltera, vida consagrada, o ministerios ordenados, que tu Espíritu Santo guíe. Inspira y fortalécelos. Que tu Iglesia y el mundo se enriquezcan con el "sí" de tus hijos. Amén.

PASTORS PONDERINGS

Dear Parishioners,

We find ourselves this Sunday at the 4th Sunday of Easter, also known as Good Shepherd Sunday. We remember here above all that Jesus is the Good Shepherd who laid down his life for his sheep.

It also gives us an opportunity to reflect on the upcoming 250th Anniversary of the Founding of our Country and the legacy that our country has had in regards to good or at least decent enough and honest leadership.

I write this because we can be proud that our country has produced its share of honest, inspiring leaders, that among its founders people humble enough to produce a Constitution that has protected us from the gravest of abuses of power, which come to fore when we start to think of ourselves as being more than we really are.

In this regard, our faith is very useful: Jesus is our Lord and our King. It's really that simple. The rest of us – even Popes or Presidents are servants.

Indeed St. Gregory the Great wrote of his role as Pope as being the “Servant of the Servants of God,” a title that St. John Paul II (sometimes also called Great) referred to in his Apostolic Exhortation Ut Unum Sint on Ecumenism and the possible role that the Papacy could offer to all Christians even beyond the bounds of the Catholic Church.

St. Augustine reminded all of us that if we have trouble being humble human beings, can we at least accept being led by a humble God.

Humility is often not easy, especially if we are told by all sorts of people in our lives to “be somebody.” Indeed, Winston Churchill once joked of an opponent of his as being “a very humble man with much to be humble about.”

Yes, but we are called to be humble and then to lift up those who are the humble (Mt 25:40).

There are many temptations that we face each and every day. At the end of the day, let us seek to walk with whom Jesus walked with and see in Jesus the Good Shepherd who died for us all.

-- Fr. Dennis

PENSAMIENTOS DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Queridos feligreses:

Nos encontramos este domingo en el Cuarto Domingo de Pascua, también conocido como el Domingo del Buen Pastor. Aquí recordamos, por encima de todo, que Jesús es el Buen Pastor que entregó su vida por sus ovejas.

Este día también nos brinda la oportunidad de reflexionar sobre el próximo 250.º aniversario de la fundación de nuestro país y sobre el legado que nuestra nación ha dejado en lo que respecta a un liderazgo bueno —o, al menos, lo suficientemente digno y honesto—.

Escribo esto porque podemos sentirnos orgullosos de que nuestro país haya producido su cuota de líderes honestos e inspiradores; que entre sus fundadores hubo personas lo suficientemente humildes como para redactar una Constitución que nos ha protegido de los más graves abusos de poder, esos que salen a la luz cuando comenzamos a creernos más de lo que realmente somos.

En este sentido, nuestra fe tiene gran utilidad: Jesús es nuestro Señor y nuestro Rey. Es, en verdad, todo así sencillo. El resto de nosotros —incluso los Papas o los Presidentes— somos siervos.

De hecho, San Gregorio Magno describió su papel como Papa con el título de «Siervo de los siervos de Dios»; un título al que hizo referencia San Juan Pablo II (a quien a veces también se le llama «el Grande») en su Exhortación Apostólica Ut Unum Sint, al tratar el tema del ecumenismo y el posible papel que el Papado podría desempeñar para todos los cristianos, incluso más allá de los confines de la Iglesia Católica.

San Agustín nos recordó a todos que, si tenemos dificultad en ser seres humanos humildes, al menos aceptemos ser guiados por un Dios humilde.

La humildad no suele ser fácil, especialmente cuando todo el mundo en nuestra vida nos digan a «ser importantes». De hecho, Winston Churchill bromeó en una ocasión sobre un adversario suyo, describiéndolo como «un hombre muy humilde, y con mucha razón».

Sí, pero nosotros estamos llamados a ser humildes y a levantar a los humildes (Mt 25:40).

Hay muchas tentaciones que se presentan a nosotros día tras día. Al final, que busquemos a caminar con quienes Jesús caminaba y ver en Jesús el Buen Pastor quien falleció por todos nosotros.

— P. Dennis
